EAGLES HEAR TALK FROM PRESIDENT AT MEETING LAST NIGHT

Splendid Banquet Is Spread Following President's Address Which Is Calculated To Stir Local Eagles To More Activity.

There were many members of the local order of Eagles present Friday evening at the meeting in honor of the Grand Worthy President of the National organization, Hon. J. C. Weed, of Oshkosh, Wis. The large lodge room was filled.

Mayor Thomas M. Russell, who is one of the oldest members of the order, was chairman of the meeting and President Weed was preceded by Mr. A. G. Sulzer, who in behalf of the local order, expressed to Mr. Weed, their pleasure at having him to honor them with his presence.

President Weed delivered a masterful address upon the great order he heads and its cardinal principles. He referred to the astounding fact that the Eagles have made a record for similar organizations in handling over seventeen million dollars with the loss of less than three thousand. He also referred to the "Patriotic Fund" of the order which gave to the widow or parents of every Eagle, who was killed in the World War or died from the effects of that war, an additional fund of $1,000 each.

The Worthy President's discourse on the cardinal principles of Eagle-dom—Liberty, Truth, Justice and Equality—was wonderfully impressive. He pointed out the difference between liberty and license, truth and hypocrisy, justice and charity.

Mr. Harry Pelzer, of Newport, State Deputy, and the organizer of the Mayville lodge, gave the members one of his usual "heart to heart" talks and urged upon them that the continue to increase their membership. He announced the continuance of the special dispensation for several weeks longer and told the members to get out and get busy.

Following this helpful talk-fest, everyone was invited to the banquet room on the second floor where the Banquet Committee had spread one of the famous Eagle banquets which are seldom equaled and never surpassed. The meeting was a grand success. Its purpose was to stir up interest among the members in an effort to increase the membership and it is the opinion of all who attended that its purpose has been accomplished and that there will be more large classes for initiation in a very short time.

Replying to the tender of a warship and the Presidential yacht, Mayflower, by Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, at the suggestion of President Wilson, for the use of Senator Harding on his trip to the Canal Zone, the President-elect this afternoon wired to Secretary Daniels as follows:

SEARCY REFUTES DEMOCRATIC CHARGE OF FRAUD IN STATE

Republican Chairman Gives Figures Showing Greater Per Cent. of Increase in Votes in Democratic Counties.

Charles H. Searcy, State Republican Chairman, says that little significance is to be attached to the Democratic cry of fraud. He repeated his statement made Wednesday that if the final count revealed that Senator J. C. W. Beckham had been elected by a plurality of one vote "the Republicans promise not to whine, but now, as in the past, intend to show their good sportsmanship."

"On the other hand," Mr. Searcy added, "if it shall be found that Mr. Ernst is elected by one vote, he will be the next United States Senator from Kentucky, all cries of fraud to the contrary notwithstanding."

Chairman Searcy issued a statement Friday night in which he disputed claims of any growing majorities in the mountains. He compared the vote of Republican counties with that of Democratic counties and said:

"The total Republican majority in the Eleventh District, notwithstanding its greatly increased population is but 80 per cent. greater than the majority of 1919, whereas in the First District, the Democratic Gibraltar, with the decreased population, the total Democratic party is almost 200 per cent. greater."

Mr. Searcy then quoted the following "marvelous increases" in the Democratic counties:

Sevent District, Scott county, 180 per cent.; Franklin county, 105 per cent.; Owen county, 107 per cent.; Woodford county, 240 per cent.; Oldham county, 210 per cent.; Clark county, 162 per cent.; Daviess county, 880 per cent.; Henderson county, 300 per cent.; Union county, 247 per cent.; and Webster county, 800 per cent.

"Democrats do not regard these increases as being suspicious," he added.

NAMED ADMINISTRATOR.

In the Mason County Court this morning Mr. J. B. Ross was named administrator of the estate of Dr. E. C. Dimmitt, deceased, and he qualified as such with W. P. Ross as surety on bond.

Mr. J. E. Browning, of Flemingsburg, came down yesterday to see his son, G. C. Browning, who remains in a critical condition at his home in East Second street.

ADINA FARM LOSES ONE OF ITS VALUABLE COWS

Registered Holstein Holding Great Milk and Butter Record, Is Found Dead at Minerva Stock Farm.

Emblagaard Hengerfeldt Mosa, the big 2,000-pound Holstein cow that attracted so much attention at the Germantown Fair the past two years was found dead at Adina Farms last night. A post mortem examination by Veterinarian Boone Phillips revealed the fact that death was caused by tympanitis.

Although her owners carried insurance to the extent of $400.00 her loss is hard to estimate, as her eight months old bull calf was sold in September for $1,000, and the wonderful records which she had made insured fancy prices and a strong demand for her offspring.

This cow's best official record was 29.76 pounds of butter and 615 pounds of milk in 7 days. This is the highest of any cow in this section of the state.

Her owners stated that her place would be filled as soon as it was possible to locate a cow with as good quality and as high or higher records. They also expect to do some official testing on cows now in the herd.

BODY, RIDDLED WITH BULLETS, FOUND IN CREEK.

Williamsport, Pa., November 6.—The body of a well-dressed stranger, riddled with bullets, was found in a creek in Hebron township, Potter county, yesterday. An autopsy revealed 32 bullet holes and eight balls of two different caliber. Evidently robbery was not the motive, as $40 was found in his pockets. It is believed that the man was murdered at some other point and his body carried to the place where it was found.

PROBE IS BEGUN INTO THE ALLEGED "BUILDING TRUST"

Legislative Investigation Is Being Made In New York In Operations Of "Building Trust."

New York, Nov. 6.—George S. Backer, millionaire builder, must give $26,000 bail in Criminal Court today to insure his appearance for trial on a charge of perjury in connection with the legislative investigation of a "building trust" here.

Backer was a witness before the legislative investigators, and it is alleged in an indictment returned by the grand jury that he told conflicting stories under oath.

Other men indicted at the same time have not been arrested. Further indictments are expected.

The legislative probes are looking into operation of the "Building Trades Council," an organization controlled by Robert P. Brindell, president.

It is alleged Brindell made workmen pay heavy dues for the privilege of earning a living, and that he also made contractors pay large sums on threat of calling strikes and tying up work.

Other organizations of builders under investigation are said to have conspired to keep up prices by limiting bids to a certain of their number and agreeing as to which one should be permitted to bid lowest and get the contract.

These operations, the investigators believe, did much to retard building in New York, as well as in other parts of the country where local contractors were members of similar organizations.

The housing shortage is attributed to these tactics.

HARDING FAMILY TREE CHARGE IS PROVED CANARD

Filmy Basis Is Slander Seventy-five Years Old, Investigation
Has Disclosed.

The whispering roorback directed against Senator Harding from somewhere in the Democratic camp took for filmy basis a slander seventy-five years old originating from petty malice in a neighborhood feud of the frontier days. It was refuted three-quarters of a century ago.

The authoritative genealogy of the Harding family shows the falsity of the canard with which "poison tongues" in the opposition have sought to incite race prejudice.

Here Is the Story.

The following story of the matter has been checked up with Harry M. Daugherty, Republican leader in Ohio, and is considered authentic:

"The subterranean accusation about Senator Harding's ancestry has been current for weeks, its purpose well known to the candidate, his advisers, and friends. Persons who had visited the border states—Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, West Virginia and Oklahoma especially—knew weeks ago that the slander was being whispered and circulated by handbills and anonymous circulars. In some localities men and women who answered their doorbells late at night were told hastily by callers that Senator Harding's blood was not pure white.

Canard Unworthy of Retort.

"Senator Harding, chafing under the falsehood, wanted to reply openly and to denounce the lie, but was advised by careful thinking friends to ignore the canard on the ground it was unworthy of retort.

"As the campaign neared its close, the efforts to discredit Senator Harding have become more openly desperate, and defamatory circulars were widely distributed, particularly in Columbus, Indianapolis and San Francisco. The circulars were so-called 'genealogies' of the Harding family.

"There were three sets of these manufactured family trees, all maliciously false in their implication which was that among the Harding ancestors was a man of colored blood. They were absurdly incorrect in their genealogical references. For example, one of them referred to Amos Harding (born 1764, died 1839) as a black man and married to Hulda Trion, described as 'passing for white.'

Where Charges Go Awry.

"As a matter of fact, these elder Hardings were not only of unimpeachable white blood, clearly traceable through the authentic history of town records and family Bible, but Hulda Trion was not Amos Hardings' wife at all, but his mother.

"One of the vicious inventions—the one attributed to Prof. William Estabrook Chancellor of Wooster university—states that this same Amos Harding was a West Indian Negro. It is a matter of public record that Amos Harding was born at Port Jarvis, N. Y., March 10, 1764, and lived in the Wyoming valley from 1770 to 1800, when he moved to Susquehanna county, Pennsylvania, and thence to Richland county, Ohio, where he died in 1839.

All the Family Facts.

"The official statement issued by the Republican national committee, based on a complete examination of the Harding family records, contains all facts concerning birthplaces and movements of the various Hardings, Trions, Tripps, Crawford, Stapletons, Madisons, Stevens, Dickersons, Van Kirks and Curries—all folks of clean pioneer strain of the purest Anglo-Saxon, German, Scotch-Irish and Dutch blood. It is taken by Senator Harding and his friends to be as straightforward a refutation of the current falsehoods as intelligent or honest minds could wish for.

"It does not, however, explain how in the petty malice of a neighbors' quarrel in rural Ohio seventy-five years ago the story originated that there was African blood in the Hardings. Any one who has lived in the country knows how one family without definite reason will form a lasting grudge against another family, sometimes a mere children's quarrel being sufficient to start a long feud.

How the Story Started.

"Back in the days of Gen. Wayne, 'Mad Anthony,' one of the distant related ancestors of the present generation had been captured by Indians as a child and was never restored to her family, a possible starting point for the original slander.

"In the hamlet of Blooming Grove were two families of prominence. One was the Hardings, a blue-eyed stock who had fought in the Revolutionary war and against the Indians.

"Nearby lived the Appleman family, also of the sturdy, pioneer kind. They had been friends, but ill feeling arose over some trivial fling between the neighbors. It broke out in the community—a humiliating visitation then as now. The people, especially the children, ate too much buckwheat. This brought out a rash and both the Harding children and the Appleman children suffered from it and felt shamed.

"One day in school one of the Appleman children turned to a small Harding and said: 'If it weren't for you Niggers we wouldn't have any itch in this village,' referring probably to the old Indian tale. The insulted Harding promptly punched an Appleman nose. When the tale was taken back to the Appleman family it made bad feeling, and there were many fights.

Revived, Ten a Murder.

"From time to time the echoes of the silly accusation died away then something would happen to revive it. For instance, there was David C. Butler, a blacksmith of Iberia, O., who married a young woman of the Harding stock. The blacksmith had a customer named Smith On October 15, 1849, they quarreled over money, and the customer hurled a nasty remark at Butler to the effect that 'nobody could expect to get a square deal from a man who marries da Nigger.'

"Butler wasted no words, but threw an edged tool at his insulter, killing him. He was arrested, tried for murder, and convicted, but was pardoned within a short time largely because public opinion exonerated him.

"In the next generation the story kept rising, yet never with a scintilla of proof. The home people around Marion were too familiar with the physical appearance of the Hardings to be impressed by the occasional recurrence of the ancient lie. They recalled the personal appearance of old Amos Harding himself and the rest of the stock, and laughed at the story.

Crops Up at Wedding.

"It cropped up in 1891 when Warren G. Harding married Florence Kling, a daughter of Amos Kling, a business man of Marion. She had been married before and not very successfully. Her father was against her marrying a young editor with no assets but a struggling rural journal. He seeks to have seized upon the story as a means of dissuading his daughter from the marriage. She ignored his insinuations, investigated the slander and satisfied herself it held not a trace of truth. Whereupon she married young Harding and was disowned by her father.

"Mr. Kling walked the streets of Marion nursing a new grievance and repeating the old slander; that is, he did up to a certain night when Mr. Harding went to him and said something. What it was nobody knows except Harding, but Kling never repeated the slander.

Story Circulated Again.

"When Mr. Harding ran for lieutenant governor the story was circulated by the same subterranean means as now. It had no effect. When he ran for governor attempts were made to discredit it, but it is said that Judson Harmon himself who was Harding's opponent, blocked it with 'Harding is my friend and a gentleman. I will have nothing to do with so scandalous a lie.'

"Chronologically this brings us to the present campaign, which in Ohio has never been equalled for viciousness and nastiness. Senator Harding's friends say the story was revived and deliberately elaborated by the Democratic managers because of the desperate straits of the Cox campaign.

"Prof. Chancellor of Wooster bobbed up with his spurious genealogy of the Harding family. Responsible persons say Chancellor some time ago went to the White House and told Secretary Joseph Tumulty that Mr. Harding would never be inaugurated president. It is also stated he offered certain 'proofs' to Mr. Tumulty, who showed him the door."

Black-Draught, Long in Successful
Use, Praised by an Arkansas
Mother, "Soon Does
Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theodor's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:
"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.
In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.
Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Miss Peeno left for Burlington, Ky., Friday, to swear to a warrant for the arrest of Earl McNulty, 25, a former resident of that section, who, she alleges, was her assailant. Tobacco Notice

Experience has taught us that Tobacco handled properly in the barn and GRADED there always makes the most satisfactory sales.

As Warehousemen we have an interest in the Grower and want tobacco to sell as high as possible, therefore we have decided to DISCONTINUE THE WAREHOUSE SORTING and request all to KEEP THE DIFFERENT GRADES SEPARATED, and mark on the wagon with Tobacco Stalks, Corn Stalks, or Paper, so that it can go directly on the basket without the formality of passing over a bench and scattered over the Warehouse floor.

This method is used by the largest market in the state, and we feel that with the co-operation of all Growers in this territory the results will justify the change.

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced. The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored. Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"The Wires are Already There—"

Sometimes, when folks order a telephone, they say: "It won't take you but a few minutes to install it, because the wires are already on the house."

BUT—

The circuit from the house all the way to the telephone exchange is the one that really counts—

That circuit is released—used for some other subscribers—when a telephone is removed.

Another must be built up for you before your telephone can be installed, and that takes time and work—

That is why it takes longer than "just a few minutes" to install a telephone—because there is a great deal more to do than simply to fasten the instrument on your wall!

PROHIBITION OFFICERS SEIZE STILL IN POWELL

One Man Arrested and 300 Gallons of Beer Destroyed When Illicit Still Is Discovered By Federal Agents.

One man was arrested, two stills destroyed, along with a large quantity of beer and other still equipment, in raids made on moonshiners in Powell county, according to a report made Friday to the office of Chief Prohibition Agent Paul Williams.

The raids were made on Crane Creek, by Agents Neal Guilfoyle and J. H. Hanlon. The operators evidently had been informed of the approach of the officers for most of the movable parts of the still had been moved when the agents reached the site of the plant. The fire, however, was still burning. Three hundred gallons of "still" beer was destroyed.

Lee Burgess, living near the still, was arrested and taken before United States Commissioner W. H. Wood, who held him to the term of federal court at Catlettsburg, without bond. This action was taken by the commissioner when it became known that Burgess had threatened the life of a witness who was summoned to appear against him. Federal officers declare that Burgess has been arrested several times for violation of the prohibition laws.

DR. WINNES RE-ARRESTED IN MURDER CASE

State Veterinarian Is Again Arrested Charged With the Murder of Miss Laura Parsons in September.

Harlan, Ky., No. 6. — Dr. H. C. Winnes, state veterinarian, is in the Harlan county jail, charged with the murder September 7 of Miss Laura Parsons, Pine Mountain settlement school teacher, whose body was found on a lonely mountain trail between here and the school.

Jim Robinson, negro convict, who was arrested at Frankfort yesterday on the same charge as he was being released from the state penitentiary on commutation of a two-year sentence for robbery, has not been brought here, although it is expected that he will be sent for.

Officials have made no announcement as to what new turn investigation of the case has taken that caused the arrest of the negro and the doctor. They and a number of Robinson's fellow-convicts, who were employed at a road camp near the scene of the crime, were questioned by the Harlan grand jury a few days after the murder and no indictment was returned.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

LOUISVILLE MAN TAKES OWN LIFE.

Louisville, Ky., November 5.—In the presence of his wife and two attorneys William J. James, prominent Louisville citizen held on a charge of murder, stabbed himself at the county jail late today and died within an hour.

Last April James shot and killed Joseph Lowe, a negro chauffeur, who ran over James' son. The latter was not injured seriously.

The deed had been preying on James' mind. As his wife and attorney were talking with him in the jail James drew a long knife and inflicted deep wounds in his chest.

The first carload of new oats to be received in Kentucky was received by the M. C. Russell Company this morning and the sidewalk in front of this large store is filled with them.

Miss Lou Ross, of Concord, was down to see her cousin, G. C. Brown, of East Second street.
